Disclosure Statement

Each and every client and student will be provided with the following disclosure regarding massage therapy:

"I, the client/student understand that the massage I receive is provided for the basic purpose of relaxation, stress reduction and relief of muscular tension. If I experience any pain during this session, I will immediately inform the student so that the work can be adjusted to my level of comfort. I will also let my therapist know if I need the temperature adjusted, the music changed, or the lights dimmed."

"I the client/student further understand that massage/bodywork should not be used as a substitute for medical examination, diagnosis, or treatment and that I should see a physician, chiropractor, or other qualified medical specialist for any mental or physical ailment that I am aware of."

"Because massage can be harmful under certain medical conditions, I the client/student affirm that I have stated all my known medical conditions, and answered all questions honestly I agree to keep the student updated as to any changes in my medical profile, and understand that there shall be no liability on the student's part should I forget to do so."

"It is also understood that any illicit or sexually suggestive remarks or advances made by me the client/student will result in immediate termination of the session, and I will be liable for payment for the full scheduled appointment."

Further, each client and student has the right to be draped at all times during massage treatment, their genitals, breasts and gluteal cleft always covered. No student or client shall ever be denied the right to be draped.

Each client and student has the right to privacy while undressing before getting on the massage table. This will be given in one of several ways. When a private room is available, the therapist/student will leave the room while the client/student undresses and gets on the table, underneath the draping. If massage therapy is being performed or practiced in a group setting the client/student may undress in a changing room or bathroom, wrap themselves in a sheet or robe, and then come to the massage table and be secured under appropriate draping. Alternately, the client/student may undress beneath the draping, which the student/therapist holds up, making a private tent under which the client/student may undress. Every attempt will be made to secure the client/student's modesty.

The client or student-client is always in control and has the right to ask for modification or termination of a massage session at any time.

School equipment will be maintained in good working order by Mountain Meadow Massage School.

Linens and clothing will be provided by the student for him/herself and kept in clean condition by the student. Linens used for public clients shall be provided by the student working with said client and will be in clean condition, a new freshly cleaned set of linens used for each client.

Each student's work area must be kept clean and tidy by the student.
