After the first day of class, in either case, the refund policy above will be in effect.

Right of withdrawal or termination of enrollment (school and student)

Withdrawal or termination prior to start of program;

This will be treated as in "Canceling enrollment agreement" above.

Withdrawal, abandonment or termination after program starts

The school will only terminate the student in the case of misconduct, non-participation, or failure to pay tuition or fees. The student may terminate the program at any time, and for any reason. The above refund policy will apply for every case.

Program start date

September 28, 2009

Credits, hours and financial, for prior training

Credit, hours, and discounts for prior training will be given on a case by case basis. Hours accepted from another school in similar areas of study will be charged at $5 per clock hour.

Total hours of program, including prior training credit

716 hours

Attendance requirements

Attendance is very important as almost everything learned is hands on and participatory. A student may miss up to 3 days without having to complete make-up work, as long as 12 hours prior notice is given before each day missed. If 4-6 days are missed, the student must make-up in one of three ways: 1-completing homework assigned by the appropriate teacher. 2-private tutoring with the teacher. Or 3-self study and demonstration massage on a teacher, at the teacher's tutoring rate. If more than 6 days are missed, a meeting will be held between director and student to evaluate the student's continued interest and to decide if withdrawal is necessary. If more than 6 days are missed without asking for a Leave of Absence, the student will be withdrawn.
